

HEALTHCARE INDUSTRY WORKFORCE SOLUTIONS

Workforce Snohomish, in collaboration with Snohomish County and Economic Alliance Snohomish County, has been convening industry-focused employer roundtables to learn more about our region's workforce and economic growth challenges. Healthcare Employers met on October 26, 2016 and identified multiple issues that they are facing within their workforce.

The Workforce community partners listed below were convened on December 7, 2016 to help identify immediate solutions to the issues raised by the employers and can help businesses connect to current job seekers, graduates, and programs. Our goal is to proceed with convening both employers and partners to continue the conversations about addressing the workforce issues and identifying long-term solutions.

Workforce Issues Raised by the Healthcare Employers and Solutions Identified by the Workforce Community Partners

Clinical and Non-Clinical Job Opportunities Outreach and Training

- Edmonds Community College holds hiring events and conducts outreach for the healthcare industry. To outreach with Edmonds Community College, please contact Elizabeth Patterson at elizabeth.patterson@edcc.edu or 425-640-1061.
- Edmonds Community College and Everett Community College both have their own career and job centers that support businesses and students. For more information, please contact Anne Penny at apenny@email.edcc.edu or 425-640-1694 or Jill Warton at jwarton@everettcc.edu.
- Everett Community College holds hiring events and conducts outreach for the healthcare industry. To outreach with Everett Community College please contact Jason Smith at jsmith@everettcc.edu or 425-388-9142.
- Snohomish County YouthWorks is a new Snohomish STEM Network and Workforce Snohomish resource that connects employers to all youth who are interested in employer-driven internships, employment, career mentorships, job opportunities, and other resources. These connection opportunities support both the employers who are recruiting talent and the youth who are searching for work-based career pathway experiences. The partnerships include Cocoon House, Everett Community College and WorkSource. Log in now to <http://www.snocoyouthworks.org/> to begin posting opportunities for youth. For more information, please contact Ton Nguyen at 425-921-3445 or ton.nguyen@workforcesnohomish.org or Kandace Barnes at kandaceb@snohomishstem.org or 206-755-7417.
- Workforce Snohomish, in partnership with Edmonds, Everett and Skagit Community Colleges, offers the I-CATCH (Innovations in Creating Access to Careers in Health Care) with Edmonds Community College. This program provides the local healthcare industry with additional well-trained workers that meet labor shortages and high demand occupations by reaching out to non-traditional healthcare workers. For more information, please contact Jared Schapiro jared.schapiro@workforcesnohomish.org at 425-921-3469.
- Workforce Snohomish offers navigation services to link businesses to job seekers who have disabilities, homeless veterans and youth. For more information, please contact Elizabeth Gordon at Elizabeth.gordon@workforcesnohomish.org.

- WorkSource Business Solutions works with businesses to assist with outreach and recruitment of skilled job seekers. They also hold recruiting job fairs and mini-hiring events across the county to further increase outreach of opportunities. If interested please contact Sam Samano at 425-258-6388 or lsamano@esd.wa.gov.
- WorksourceWA.com is a Monster-based statewide system that connects businesses to job seekers. Log in to <https://www.worksourcewa.com/> to post any job openings. For more information, contact Sam Samano at 425-258-6388 or lsamano@esd.wa.gov or Michelle Wilson at 425-258-6362.
- The WorkSource Youth Center (aged 16-24) in the Everett Train Station is always looking for opportunities to share career information with youth. For more information contact Robert Dingethal at Robert.Dingethal@rescare.com or 425-319-7969.

Interpersonal Communication Skills / Work Ethics / Work Culture Training

- The Cascades Job Corps College & Career Academy is a tuition-free training and education program that will connect you with the skills and educational opportunities you need to establish a real career. For more information, contact <https://cascadesjobcorpscca.com/>.
- Edmonds Community College has a Career Action Center that offers workshops on interviewing and soft skills training. If you would like more information please contact Anne Penny at apenny@email.edcc.edu or 425-640-1694.
- Edmonds Community College in partnership with Housing Hope provides Transitional Life Skills, which is a two-week course that trains individuals on dealing with change, time management, goal setting, and workplace strategies. For more information about their graduates, please contact Jan Strand at jstrand@edcc.edu or 425-640-1008.
- Everett Community College offers multiple interviewing and soft/basic skills workshops. They also have job fairs that offer interview preparation on main campus and site visits to companies to talk with their HR personnel about the issues they are facing. If interested please contact Jon Bonner at Jbonner@everettcc.edu or Tiffany Williams at tidwilliams@everettcc.edu.
- Everett Public Schools is committed to assuring that students graduate with college, career and life ready skills, including a framework for 21st century skills. This framework will guide teaching and instruction. To learn more about the framework, or to guide educators in developing real-world application of 21st century skills, please contact Dana Riley Black at drileyblack@everettsd.org.
- Goodwill offers courses on Work Readiness, Succeeding on the Job and Social Etiquette workshops & classes targeted at improving an individual's professional communication and other soft skills. For more information, please contact Tania Siler at tania.siler@seattlegoodwill.org or 360-657-4418.
- WorkSource Everett, Lynwood and Monroe offer on and off-site workshops and one-on-one guidance on how to interview, develop customer service skills, expectations within a work culture and other soft skills training. They offer a program called Work Experience which is designed to provide workers with a third-party paid on the job experience. Employers do not risk losing their investment in wages during the program since the participants are paid for by another organization. The program allows the business to have the participants for 90 hours, which helps them determine if the individual is right for their business before hiring them. If you would like more information on training or graduates, please contact Sam Samano at LSamano@esd.wa.gov or 425-258-6388 or Michelle Wilson at 425-258-6362.

- The Youth Center at WorkSource Everett located at the Everett train station provides coaching and mentorship for youths (16 - 24) to help close the gap with entry level placement and mentor on how to grow and move up with the company while developing a career pathway. This can be done with career coaching, training, and understanding the success ladder. Training includes interpersonal communication, knowledge of how the work culture operates, interview skills. The center also offers on On-The-Job Training (OJT) and Work Experience (WEX) internships. For more information on employing or offering an opportunity to a young adult graduate, contact Robert Dingethal at Robert.Dingethal@rescare.com or 425-319-7969 or Rachel Gehrmen at rgehrman@esd.wa.gov or 425-374-8351.

Healthcare Over-Regulation

Healthcare is becoming so overregulated that it is stifling the size of the workforce pipeline and limiting the upward mobility pathways within the industry.

- Being that this will be an ongoing concern with no short-term solutions, both Everett Community College's Dean of Health Sciences & Public Safety Division Jason Smith at jsmith@everettcc.edu or 425-388-9142 and Edmonds Community College's Coordinator Elizabeth Patterson at elizabeth.patterson@edcc.edu or 425-640-1061 would like to work with you and try to find how as a community trainers and business can best work through the ever increasing regulations.