Date: _____

Applicant Name: _____

All male applicants who were born on or after January 1, 1960 must be registered with the Selective Service before they can access WIOA Title I program services. (TEGL 11-11, change 2).

In determining whether the failure was “knowing”, the following questions should be answered if appropriate and attach any evidence to support your statement.

1. Were you aware of the requirement to register?
2. Did you know the military registration requirements in the U.S.?
3. If you knew about the requirement to register, were you misinformed about the applicability of the requirement to you (e.g., veterans who were discharged before their 26th birthday were occasionally told that they did not need to register)?
4. On what date did you first learn that you were required to register?
5. Where did you live when you were between the ages of 18 and 25?
6. What was your legal status when you were between the ages of 18 and 25?
7. Does your status information letter indicate that Selective Service sent letters to your address and they did not receive a response?
8. Provide details to the questions below when you were between the ages of 18 and 25:
 - Did you attend school?
 - Did you drop-out of school?
 - Did you graduate from school?
 - Were you working?
 - Were you working as a seasonal farmworker?
 - Were you monolingual when you entered the U.S.?
 - Are you still monolingual?

- Were you living in monolingual household?

Interviewer:

In determining whether the failure was “willful”, the following question should be answered if appropriate:

1. Was the applicant aware of Selective Service, however, decided not to register?
2. Did he have Selective Service information on whether or not to register and decided not to register?
3. What actions, if any, did he take when he learned of the requirement to register?

The applicant’s statement should reflect the answers to the questions above when considering whether or not the failure to register was knowing and willful. If the failure to register was not knowing and willful and the individual is otherwise eligible under WIOA Title 1, services may be provided. The applicant must complete the Selective Service Waiver and attach any evidence. If the applicant writes the statement in Spanish, the staff person translating the statement must sign the translation where the form asks for the applicant signature.

Applicant’s Statement:
